Health & Safety Policy Statement

Jointing Technologies Group (comprising Toolout Limited, Langley Engineering Limited, and Jointing Technologies Ireland Ltd) is committed to providing safe and healthy working conditions for all employees, contractors, and visitors for the prevention of work-related injury and ill-health.

The Managing Director commits to the health, safety, and welfare of our employees while they are at work and that of others who may be affected by our undertakings. To ensure compliance with the relevant legislation, and to ensure the principles of health and safety are clearly understood, we are committed to:

- the annual setting and review of OH&S objectives with arrangements in place for the effective planning, development and review of this health and safety policy.
- fulfilling all legal & other requirements necessary to provide safe and healthy working conditions.
- eliminating hazards, where practicable, and reducing OH&S risks.
- encouraging a culture based on the continual improvement of the OH&S management system.
- regularly consuling with workers and the Health & Safety Committee
- providing the necessary information, instruction, and training to employees and others (including temporary employees) to ensure their competence with respect to health and safety at work.
- devoting the necessary resources to ensure the health and safety of employees. Expert help will be sought where the necessary skills are not available within our company.

We will take all reasonable steps to implement, monitor, and maintain safe plant, substances, equipment, working environments, and working practices within our company.

We recognise that safety is the responsibility of everyone and is not just a function of management. Employees will have specific duties and responsibilities to comply with the letter and spirit of this policy. Employees have specific responsibilities to take reasonable care of themselves and others that could be affected by their activities and recognise that their co-operation is vital in achieving the standards required.
